

FRIDAY, JULY 1. 1743.

Frankfort, June 30.

HIS Imperial Majesty set out from Augsbourg on the 26th, in order to return to the City, where he is at present. Before he left Augsbourg, M. Seckendorff was sent for to Council of War which was taken there were the next Day communicated to M. Broglie.

That General, in a very respectful Letter to the Emperor, signified in Answer, that he had Orders to march his Forces with all imaginable Diligence towards the Rhine, and that therefore it would be impossible for him to comply with his Imperial Majesty's Demands. Upon this a Council of State was held, in which the Emperor took a final Resolution to the quitting Augsbourg, and returning hither, which he executed two Days after. As for M. Seckendorff, he returned to the Army on the 24th, and soon after sent to inform Prince Charles of Lorraine, That he had his Imperial Majesty's Commands, not to act offensively against the Queen of Hungary, and that he would readily put his Army into Quarters of Refreshment in Silesia and Franconia. The Presence of his Imperial Majesty, with the Neighbourhood of the Armies of France and the Allies, both of which are within a few Days of us, fill this City with Strangers to such a Degree, that we can scarce make a Shift to lodge them at a Rate. The common Opinion here is, that the Emperor has made, or will make, a Separate Peace with the Queen of Hungary, and that the Disputes between her Auxiliaries and the French will be decided by a general Engagement.

Dresden, June 27. M. de Heroville, who commands the French Forces in Silesia, having formed a Design of driving from thence with his whole Garison, as M. de Meuse did from Prague, attempted it lately with very different Success; thirty of his Soldiers deserting, and joining with the Austrians, hindered them from forcing the first Post of the Blockade; which gave the Austrian General who commanded, an Opportunity of collecting his Forces together, and driving the Garison back into the Town, where immediately a Sedition happened amongst the Burghers, there being but 14 Days Bread in the Place; so that on the 24th, the Governor thought to send a Colonel to the Austrian General, to settle the Terms of the Capitulation; but what these are, we know not at present. It is generally believed that a Negotiation of great Importance is on foot between a Court and that of Vienna, but what the Nature of it cannot easily be penetrated; since, except the Duke Saxe-Weissenfels, his Majesty consults none of his Ministers thereupon.

Extract of a private Letter from Paris, July 5.

M. Broglie still continues to be the Hero of the Court, since he foresaw and predicted all that is come to pass, as appears by his Letters, even before the Beginning of this Campaign. He has the Orders sent him which he desired, for marching back the Army to the Rhine; and he was assured at the same time, That M. Noailles had the necessary Orders, and was on the Point of executing a Scheme, which would enable him to return into, and recover Bavaria. The Court has resolved on a new Augmentation of the Militia, which is to be of 50,000 Men, taken out of the Livery, &c. and Orders for that Purpose are issued to all the Provinces in the Kingdom. The Quota for this City is to be 2000. We are in an extravagant Fermentation on the News from the Rhine. Such a Number of Officers have been killed in this unlucky Business, that there is scarce a Family in the Kingdom which has not Reason to put on Mourning. The Ministry affect to talk of nothing but War. They say, that the Honour of France is too far engaged to recede; that it would be inglorious to abandon the Emperor in such a Condition; that the War is now become our own; and that if we cannot keep the Allies at bay in Germany, we must soon expect to see Croats, Pandours, and Highlanders, in the very Heart of France. In the mean time, Mens Mouths are open, and they stick not to say, we are fallen into like Times with those at the End of the late Reign, when Louis XIV. had neither Counsellors nor Generals, knew not how to make War, or to obtain Peace.

I R E L A N D.

From the DUBLIN SOCIETY.

On Thursday, the 16th Instant, the Society determined the following Præmiums, promised by them, on several Articles of Husbandry.

The Candidates for the Præmium of 20 l. for sowing the greatest Quantity of Wheat in 1742, were as follow.

Mr. William Fennell, of Shurebank, in the County of Tipperary, sowed with Wheat, 93 Acres, 3 Rod, 34 Perches.

Mr. Richard Logan, of ... in the County of Meath, 125 Acres, 15 Perches.

Mr. Laurence Miffler, of Dowlingstown, in the County of Kildare, 156 Acres, 2 Rod, 26 Perches.

Accordingly the Præmium was adjudged to Mr. Miffler, whose Claim was well supported by the Affidavit of Lawrence Byrne, Surveyor, as to the Quantity of Land; and the Affidavits of the said Lawrence Miffler and Daniel Delany, that the said Lands were sowed in September and October last, with 128 Barrels of Wheat, and harrowed in on broad Setts; and that the Wheat is now in a flourishing Condition.—Which Affidavits were sworn before John Boarke, Esq; and the Certificate, testifying the Truth thereof, was signed by Mr. George Graydon, and Mr. Thomas Graydon, who viewed the Wheat growing, and found it in a flourishing Condition.

The Candidates for the Præmium of 30 l. for effectually draining the greatest Quantity of unprofitable Bog in 1742, were as follow.

Mr. Joseph Fuller, of Grangemore, in the County of Westmeath, drained in the said Year 58 Acres, 1 Rod, 27 Perches.

And his Drains contained 756 Perches in length, and generally 7 Feet deep, and 7 wide.

Luke Malone, of Capanleg, near Mountmellick in the Queen's County, drained in the said Year 91 Acres, 2 Rod, 18 Perches.

His Drains were 808 Perches in length, and generally 7 Feet deep, and 6 wide.

Richard Bourke, of Drumsally, in the County of Limerick, Esq; drained 160 Acres.

The Rev. Mr. Thomas Horsworth, of Ashurst, in Lower Ormond, and County of Tipperary, effectually drained 160 Acres, 1 Rod, 10 Perches.

His Drains were in length 1464 Perches, which is above four Irish measured Miles and an half, some of them 12 Feet deep, and as many wide; others 8 Feet, and generally about 6 Feet deep and 8 wide.

Mr. John Bagott, of Nurny, in the County of Kildare, drained in 1742 262 Acres, 1 Rod, 24 Perches.

His Drains contained in length 1450 Perches, some 9 Feet wide, and generally 7 Feet wide, and as many deep.

Accordingly the Præmium of 30 l. was adjudged to Mr. Bagott. Mr. John Lane, Surveyor, made Affidavit before Mr. Lyndon of the Number of Plantation Acres in the Bog so drained. Mr. Bagott made Oath as to the Number of Perches, and Dimensions of the Drains; to which a Map was annexed, describing the Divisions of the Bog, and the Course of the Drains; and that all the Drains were clear, and in good Order. And this Certificate was signed by Mr. Edward and Mr. George Medlicott, testifying the Goodness of the Drains.

From hence it appears, that above 700 Acres of unprofitable Bog have been well drained in 1742, by five Persons only.

The Candidates for the Præmium of 20 l. for reclaiming and making profitable, in 1742, the greatest Quantity of Bog that had been drained before, were as follow.

James Echlin, of Echlinville, in the County of Down, Esq; reclaim'd, burnt, and sow'd Bog, before unprofitable, 28 Acres, 1 Rod, 2 Perches.

Luke Malone, of Capanleg, near Mountmellick, in the Queen's County, reclaimed by draining, plowing, burning, and sowing, 55 Acres, 15 Perches.

Mr. Joseph Fuller, of Grangemore, in the County of Westmeath, reclaim'd in like manner Bog before unprofitable 64 Acres, 2 Rod, 9 Perches.

Which Claim was well vouched by Affidavits and Certificates; accordingly the Præmium was adjudged to Mr. Fuller.

The Candidates for the Præmium of 20 l. for planting out in Orchards, 1742, the greatest Number of Apple Trees fit for Cyder, at 21 Feet Distance at least one from another, were as follow.

Latham Blacker, of Rathersker, in the County of Lowth, Esq; planted, in 1742, 14 Acres with the best Cyder Trees, at proper Distances, in Number 244.

Before five Acres more planted with 306 Apple Trees in February and March, 1742.

Charles McDonnell, of Kilkee, in the County of Clare, Esq; planted, in 1742, 90 Acres with 7461 Apple Trees, at 21 Feet Distance at least one from another; and 2214 Wildings in Hedge Rows, at 7 Feet Distance one from another. In all 9675.

He also inclosed the Whole with Stone Walls 6 Feet high, and in length 428 Perches.

Number of Trees and Acres, their Kinds, Distance, and good Condition, were sworn before Lord Chief Justice Singleton, and Baron Mountney. The Grafted Trees were from 3 to 10 Years old; and the Wildings from 5 to 10 Years old, and all in a thriving Condition, except 6 Trees, whose Bark is still green.

Accordingly the Præmium was adjudged to Mr. Mac Donnell, who after the Adjudication, was so generous as to desire that a 3d Part of the Præmium should be disposed of, next Year, in Præmiums as the Society should think proper: Which Trust they accepted, and with Thanks return their Acknowledgments for the same.

L O N D O N.

It appears by several Private Letters from Turin, that his Sardinian Majesty is absolutely fixed in his Resolution to support the Queen of Hungary, and that his Army in Piedmont will consist of 40,000 Men; notwithstanding the Report spread at Paris, of his having made a Separate Peace, and having no more in his Army than 24,000, and most of them Militia.

A Private Letter from Dresden, dated June 16, has this Particular.—M. Wafner, who is Minister from her Hungarian Majesty to the Court of Great Britain, arrived here some Days ago, and was Yesterday introduced to his Majesty by M. Esterhazy, the Hungarian Minister here. His Majesty conferred with them till Dinner, and kept them both to dine with him; which is esteemed a very happy Omen by all the Friends of the House of Austria here.

We learn from Mannheim, that his Highness the Elector Palatine had issued an Edict, directing all Possessors of Boats, Barges, &c. on the Rhine, to withdraw them, has broken the two Bridges of Boats in the Neighbourhood of that City, and is putting all the strong Places in his Dominions in the best Posture of Defence possible.

Private Letters from Paris say, That a celebrated Writer had been taken up, for a Libel on the Marshals Broglie and Noailles; and that another had been sent to Bicêtre, on Account of a Piece intitled, The Plan of an Heroick Poem, in Twenty-four Books, called the GASCONADE; containing the Exploits of M. Broglie, in Italy, Bohemia, and Bavaria.

From Frankfort we hear, that the Elector of Mentz and the Lord Carteret were expected there, to assist at certain Conferences for restoring the Peace of Germany.

Yesterday being the Day appointed for the Bailiff of the Borough of Southwark to make his Declaration, he accordingly met at St. Margaret's Hill between 11 and 12 o'Clock in the Forenoon, and declared, that the Number of Voters upon the Poll were as follow;

For Mr. Hammond	863
For Mr. Hume	792

But that after a Scrutiny duly had, the Number of legal Pollers were,

For Mr. Hume	732
For Mr. Hammond	691

Majority for Mr. Hume 41

Whereupon Mr. Hume was declared duly Elected.

The Inhabitants of St. John's celebrated their Success with Bonfires, Illuminations, and other Demonstrations of Joy. And under Sound of Trumpets, French Horns, &c. the following loyal Healths were drank. Our Victorious King, his Family and Friends. The Queen of Hungary, and her brave Allies. The Speaker of the House of Commons, Lord Baltimore, and their worthy Member Mr. Hume. The Whole was conducted with the greatest Regularity, and a visible Joy diffus'd itself in every Face on this happy Occasion.

Last Wednesday died, at his House in Albemarle-street, Sir George Warburton, Bart.
 John Innis, Gent. is appointed Captain of a Company in General Hargrove's Regiment at Gibraltar.
 Yesterday died at her House in Little Dean's-Yard, Westminster, Mrs. Playford, who, for many Years, kept a considerable Boarding-House for Noblemen and Gentlemen's Sons, educated at Westminster-School.
 Last Night the Corpse of Dr. John Douglas, the famous Midwife and Surgeon, was carried from his late Dwelling-house in Downing-street, with great Pomp and Solemnity, and interr'd in St. Margaret's Church-yard.
 Yesterday 25 Prisoners were tried at the Old Bailey, when Richard Warwick, who was convicted on Wednesday for Transportation, was Capitally Convicted for robbing James Fennell, of a Hat and Wig, and 15 s. in Money, on the Highway. As was also John Head, for stealing two Heifers, the property of John Harvey of Enfield.
 Eleven were cast for Transportation; and twelve Acquitted.
